

Simply put, the NAB has no right to prevent me from obtaining information from any source I choose. I listen to my sat radio a lot, all the time when on the road. My sat radio programming includes traffic reporting. I want to continue to receive traffic reports via sat radio, and I resent a political body of insecure individuals thinking they can prevent this from happening. Thank you.